

SYLVIA THOMPSON'S DARE TO DREAM

Sylvia has always loved music. She used to sing in choirs, as well as performed solos in her church. Still today, she likes to sing beautiful harmonies during musical programs. Along with this, she has a great sense of humour.

Sylvia is a recent recipient of a Dare To Dream.

Sylvia attended a Georgian Music Association Concert at Grace United Church on Sunday November 9th, 2014.

The concert was “Noel Coward: his music, wit and charm”, which featured Soprano Soloist Melanie Conly and Vocalist Bud Roach, who were accompanied by the Talisker Players Quartet.

After the first piece was finished, Sylvia had a big smile on her face and said “Wow!”

Sylvia thoroughly enjoyed herself, laughing and smiling throughout the afternoon.
